She stated that the terms of the loan offered by [redacted] was a total of $750,000 with 4 points up front and it was to come from an unnamed fund. It was to have a maturity date of 7 year pay back and when they left the meeting she was advised that they, not further identified, would be in touch with her.

She inquired at one time from [redacted] whether or not any drugs would be involved and he stated that they do not even mention drugs after a certain level of the organization. [redacted] had told her that he felt that there would be a filtering of money through the business however, when she mentioned that to [redacted] during the meeting in Chicago he scoffed at the idea and inquired why in the world would anyone want to put cash through the books of a business when it already was cash.
